

UNITED TEST AND ASSEMBLY CENTER LTD

UTAC Reinforces Management Team for Next Phase of Growth

United Test and Assembly Center Ltd (“UTAC” – SGX: UTAC) wishes to announce the appointment of Mr Johnson Hsu Ying-Ling as President of Taiwan Operations and Mr Tan Chee Keong as Group Executive Vice President of Business Operations. Both will be reporting directly to Mr Lee Joon Chung, Group President and Chief Executive Officer of UTAC.

Mr Johnson Hsu will take over the reins from Mr Tsai Chung-Che, the incumbent who has been appointed Executive Vice Chairman of the UTAC Board, to helm the Group’s Taiwan operations.

Mr Hsu has been with UTAC Taiwan Corporation since 1997 starting as Production Manager and rising to Vice President of UTAC Taiwan’s Business Division. He has excellent industry knowledge, is thoroughly familiar with the operations of the company and widely respected in the industry. Before UTAC Taiwan, he was with Scientek Corporation from 1984 to 1997. Mr Hsu graduated from Chung Yuan University in Taiwan with a Bachelor of Electronics in 1980.

Mr CK Tan has returned to the fold to drive the Group’s business activities. In his new capacity, Mr Tan will focus on consolidating and optimising UTAC’s Group-wide business processes, directions and strategy.

Mr Tan first joined UTAC in November 2001 and was responsible for all test development activities, purchasing and logistics function of the Group. After leaving UTAC in mid 2006, Mr Tan was with Silicon Laboratories International Pte. Ltd. as the Managing Director of Asia Operations. Prior to UTAC, he served as Vice President of Test Operations at ST Assembly Test Services Limited from 1996 to 2001 where he was instrumental in growing its test business and driving various research and development activities that resulted in the filing of numerous patents. From 1993 to 1996, Mr Tan worked as Operations Manager with Cyrix Asia Pacific, and was the Supervising Engineer with Advanced Micro Devices Pte. Ltd from 1987 to 1993. Mr Tan received his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of London in 1984.

“I am glad to welcome CK back into the UTAC family and delighted to see Johnson step up to head our Taiwan Operations. I have worked very well with both before and I am sure their vast industry experience and deep knowledge of the company will be a valuable asset to UTAC as we embark on our next stage of growth and aim to reach our full potential,” commented Mr JC Lee, President & Chief Executive Officer of UTAC.

All appointments are effective immediately while Mr Hsu will assume his new role on 1 July 2007.
