UTAC and MAX Group Collaborate on Improving Operational Efficiency in UTAC's Thailand Factories

Singapore / USA, 6 May 2016 – The MAX Group is pleased to announce a successful first-round joint collaboration effort with United Test & Assembly Center Ltd (UTAC), a Singapore-based semiconductor assembly and test services provider, to improve operational efficiency in UTAC's Thailand Factories (UTL).

"MAX helped the UTAC UTL to realize its full capacity potential. We welcome the opportunity to collaborate with the UTAC team and hope it will be a lasting and productive relationship" said Mr. Ariel Meyuhas, MAX Chief Operating Officer.

"UTAC's competitive edge stems from its ability to quickly react to aggressive market changes by focusing on an agile manufacturing system and responsiveness to customer needs. We are setting world-class manufacturing benchmarks with the help of our partners at MAX" said Dr. Frank Myers, UTAC Senior Vice President of Operations.
